

June 12, 2007

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Patricia A. Davidson
Director of Marketing,
(502) 326-2326

DMLO Wins Two Awards

The Association for Accounting Marketing Marketing Achievement Awards (AAM-MAA) were presented on Thursday, June 7, 2007. From the more than 175 entries, DMLO won in two categories. The awards were won for Series Print (print advertising) and for Non-Print (Radio) advertising. The advertising campaign and new corporate identity were designed by John McCafferty, President and owner of Louisville's McCafferty and Company Advertising. John was recently recognized for bringing the National Advertising Federation Conference to Louisville for their conference last week.

Deming, Malone, Livesay & Ostroff is one of the largest Louisville-based certified public accounting firms according to the most recent Top 25 List produced by Business First. For more than 30 years, the firm has been providing audit, accounting, tax, estate, business advisory, valuation and litigation support services to privately-owned businesses, estates, not-for-profit organizations, leading Louisville families and individuals.

###