Meredith Hughes says today's letter is TBD

Businesses have an alphabet soup assortment of letters to choose when setting up a business entity, from basic C's and the old reliable S's, to the LLC's, LLP's, FLP's and even PLLC's. Meredith Hughes likes them all, especially the challenge of moving from one entity type to another as he works with different clients.

Meredith has been in accounting for six years, three of which have been with DMLO. He focuses primarily in taxes and reviews, working with C Corps, S Corps, LLCs and individuals. Meredith also handles employee benefit plan audits and several other audits. His business concentration has been in manufacturing, distribution and service companies.

Meredith thinks that all accounting graduates should get the opportunity to do bookkeeping for several clients when they first come out of school. It's good preparation for the real world. In particular, he laughs about having done the bookkeeping for a tire mounting company through the oil that coated the books.

When he is not taking care of client work, Meredith would like to be fishing. His favorite spot is Lake Cumberland, which he knows pretty well having grown up in that region of Kentucky. He and his wife live in Shelbyville.
